DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.

The following is a quotation of the first paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall contain a written description of the invention, and of the manner and process of making and using it, in such full, clear, concise, and exact terms as to enable any person skilled in the art to which it pertains, or with which it is most nearly connected, to make and use the same and shall set forth the best mode contemplated by the inventor of carrying out his invention.

Claims 6 and 58 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, first paragraph, as failing to comply with the written description requirement. The claim(s) contains subject matter which was not described in the specification in such a way as to reasonably convey to one skilled in the relevant art that the inventor(s), at the time the application was filed, had possession of the claimed invention. The expansion of the acid from those that are weak to any acid whatsoever is clearly new matter. Although the original term was indefinite, it clearly meant something; it clearly was meant to exclude any acid which could not be considered weak under any definition.

Claims 1-22 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention.

What does "protodesilylation"? Likewise the "protodesilylating" of claim 20, step (g). The examiner cannot locate a definition in standard dictionaries. Applicants are asked to provide a definition which clearly conveys its scope. The traverse is unpersuasive. Applicants have not provided a clear definition of the term. Two papers were referred to, but no copies were provided, so the examiner cannot determine if the term is defined therein. Applicants point to page 20, in which there is a step of 79-91 called protodesilylation, but that does not define it, but merely gives an example of it. Further, the remarks on page 24 give a revised version of the step. In the specification scheme, protodesilation is the step of replacement of Ra (Ra is allyl, phenyl, C1 to C6 alkylphenyl or Cl to C6 alkoxyphenyl) with OH. But on page 24, the protodesilylation is labeled as the replacement of the Ra with H₃CO₂SO, a group which not only does not make sense given what reagent is listed (methanesulfonic acid), but is not the same as what page 20 teaches, because it is not the OH group. Further, the remarks say that "the silicon-aryl bond is broken by an electrophilic reagent (E+X⁻). That is yet a different reagent. It must be noted that Ra is not necessarily an aryl group, since it can be e.g. allyl). It should be noted in this regard that the page 24 scheme depicts the base being used on a compound (the one in brackets) which already has the Ra group removed. Yet claim 22 says that it is 79 itself which is treated with the base. Similarly, in claim 17, the claim language is "protodesilylation is performed with KOH or NaOH". Using the (E+X⁻) formulation, that would make E as the Na, meaning that e.g. phenyl sodium is eliminated, which makes no sense whatsoever. The examiner cannot see how these claims can be reconciled with the explanation being proffered.

Applicant's amendment necessitated the new ground(s) of rejection presented in this Office action. Accordingly, THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. See MPEP § 706.07(a). Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within

Art Unit: 1624

TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the date of this final action.
